MISKALL IS THE MAN

Chosen by President Cleveland to Be Postmaster.

WAS NOMINATED YESTERDAY

But the Next Head of the Local Office Knew Nothing About It Until a News Review Man Awoke Him at Midnight With the Cheering News—Sooner Than Was Expected.

M. E. Miskall was comfortably asleep at his home on Fourth street last night when he was awakened by an awful thundering at the door. Waiting a moment to be convinced that some one was attempting to rouse the neighborhood, he walked to the window, and raising the sash stuck his head into the cold, damp atmosphere of the night.

"I want to buy some postage stamps," came from one of two figures standing in the snow and stamping his feet to keep warm.

"Why don't you go to the postoffice and get them?" responded the gentleman at the window.

"Because you were nominated for the postmastership this afternoon by President Cleveland, and I want to get the first installment you sell," said the News Review representative, who had roused the new-made official for the purpose of letting him know his good fortune. A few words of thanks were all that could be heard, and M. E. Miskall retired to his couch to dream of the days when he would throw letters into the sacks, and reap a golden harvest as one of Uncle Sam's faithful servants. The first intimation he had of the cheering news came from the News Review, and Mr. Miskall was delighted to know that the plum had fallen into his hands.

The nomination was sent to the senate yesterday afternoon by President Cleveland in company with a number of others, and it came to East Liverpool as a flash from a summer sky. The papers in the case were only filed a few days ago, and the opinion was prevalent here that nothing would be done by the president until the last minute. Many persons were surprised to see the intelligence bulletined in the News Review window this morning, but accepting the news as truth, expressed gratification or disappointment according to their sympathies in the fight, which the public believed had just been started. The nomination must go to the senate, where it will probably be confirmed in time to permit the newly-created official to take up his duties when the time of Postmaster Simms expires Jan. 19.

Although the term of Postmaster Simms expires on Jan. 19, he will not turn over the office to his successor until the first of next month. This will give him an opportunity to make the necessary settlements with the department, and leave everything in readiness for the new incumbent. Mr. Simms has not yet decided upon an occupation when his term expires.

There will be little, if any, difficulty connected with the confirmation of the appointment by the senate, as the ear of Senator Brice has been turned toward East Liverpool, and a message came here this morning containing the news that he would take care of the appointment in the senate. There were seven applicants for the position, but it seems that the president long ago decided upon his man, and lost no time in making the nomination.

HOW IT IS IN FLORIDA.

Mr. S. H. Porter Writes of Poverty and Distress.

Following is an extract from a letter, written by S. H. Porter, who is at present at Mount Dora, in Florida:

"You have, of course, before this, the newspaper accounts of the freeze, but no paper published in the north in fact in the world, can portray the terrible condition of this country. In a word it is simply ruin, beggary, starvation and discouragement too great for humanity to face. I do not know when I ever saw a sight more sad than meets the eye on every hand today. You may think I am putting it strong, but I could have cried over the condition of this once beautiful Florida. Friday everything was dressed in living green, everything growing in the most luxuriant manner possible, the orange trees laden with golden fruit, vegetables of all kinds ready for the market, and the wild growth in the bays and hammocks dense in their leaf and flower. Everything and everybody giving forth the brightest side of life. Friday all is gone. Not a green leaf is left, every living thing once filled with vegetable life is drooping and flat, a dead black mass upon the ground. Everybody is sad and discouraged, and all that was once the most beautiful picture of life is now a hideous representation of death. No state in the Union ever received such a blow; the terrible fires of the north-west, the blizzards and cyclones of the west, and the awful droughts of different states, calling for human sympathy and substantial aid, was not, save in point of loss of life, to be compared with what this people have to suffer. In other states, in spite of the scourge which fell upon the people, there was in a few months some means of escape; but to Florida, all is gone; gone not for a few months but for a year and a half. Fifteen to eighteen months must pass before even the most favored grower can bring any returns to the owner, and to many whose trees are frozen to the ground it means 6 to 12 years of toil and expense before they can reap any reward for all these years of toil and labor. I can not see how it is possible for a majority of the people to live. They have nothing, and there is no chance to earn a living by serving their more fortunate neighbors, for they have nothing. All improvements will be cut off; new trees can not be planted until they grow from seed, as all nursery stock is killed, and it is thought by some that even the seed in the present crop is gone. In this latter event it will be a year before seed can be planted in order to raise nursery stock. I do not believe there is an unfrozen orange on a tree in the state, leaving packers, railroads, box makers and pickers nothing to do for a year. The freeze is the same all over the state, the mercury ranging from about 15 to 20 degrees above zero. At this point it was 14 to 15 degrees, freezing ice over an inch thick in a few hours. I never suffered more with the mercury below zero at home. The weather changed on Wednesday but it was not serious. Thursday there was a cold rain. Thursday night there was a raw cold wind followed by a slight frost. Friday it was colder and in the night the hard freeze came. Everything in our house that would freeze was frozen, one crock filled with a fluid bursting from top to bottom. The mercury dropped to the 20 mark last night and it is freezing again today."

AFTER A DIVORCE.

Mrs. Weaver, of This Place, is Weary of Married Life.

Special to the News Review.

LISBON, Jan. 4.—Hattie E. Weaver filed a petition this morning asking a divorce from her husband, Alexander D. Weaver.

She claims that he abandoned her three years ago in Salem, since which time she has been living in East Liverpool with her two children, having no other support than what rent she could collect from their Salem property. So far as she knew she was deserted without cause, but for years prior to his leaving, Alexander was guilty of habitual drunkenness. She would like to have the court give her an allowance by which she can support herself and children pending the decision in the case, and she also wants a restraining order to prevent her husband from disposing of the property. Mr. and Mrs. Weaver were married in 1885 at New Alexandria, West Virginia.

The suit of Russell & Co., of Massillon, against A. J. Bertram, of Wellsville, came to common pleas court today as an appeal. The plaintiff secured judgment for $35 the other day as the amount of a subscription to the electric light concern of Wellsville. The plant has passed into the hands of the plaintiffs in this case, and they are collecting some of the old debts.

They Liked Oysters.

A case of oysters containing 14 cans was stolen from Wells' restaurant at the Fifth street rink last night. The matter was at once reported to the police and the search revealed the presence of the case in the alley in the rear of William Brunt's residence where they had been left by two men who were scared away while taking the oysters from the case this morning. Robert B. Thompson, a grandson of Mr. Brunt, took the case to the house where it was later recovered by Mr. Wells. There is a clue to the thieves.

Carefully Protected.

Among the stories going around town is a tale relating to a gambling den, which is fitted up with the latest devices and is being largely patronized. The place is in charge of a man who knows the dangers of gambling and what he can expect from the police so well that guards are stationed at a safe distance from the place, and no one unacquainted with the rules can pass. It is said that the place is coining money.

THEY PUT UP THE CASH

The White Granite Compact is Complete.

WESTERN MEN ARE ALL IN

Eastern Manufacturers Have Reported to the Executive, and the Strongest Pottery Organization in the Country is Ready For Business.

The meeting of manufacturing potters held in the offices of Actuary J. M. McClave yesterday afternoon was the most important event of its character that ever took place in East Liverpool.

While it was a foregone conclusion several weeks ago that the compact would include all the white granite manufacturers of the west there was really no tangible basis to work upon until yesterday afternoon when the cash deposits were placed in the hands of the actuary. The meeting was called for the purpose of making doubly sure that all the plans which have been so carefully discussed these past few weeks would be carried out according to arrangement, and now all the manufacturers are satisfied. Colonel Taylor presided at the meeting, and briefly stated the object in order that all might be reminded of what was to be done. A number of resolutions of minor importance were passed and the roll of concerns was called. Every pottery within the jurisdiction of the meeting answered the interrogation by depositing with the proper officer $50, or its equivalent, for every kiln in the plant. The cash deposit having been made the manufacturers discussed several other matters and the meeting adjourned. Joseph Mayer was there for his concern, Mr. Day was present for the Steubenville company, and Daniel Taylor represented the Chelsea. All the East Liverpool companies were there with one or more men for each concern, and there was a general spirit of harmony which it is believed means great things for the compact. The organization includes all factories in the country making white ware, and also such factories as produce table and sanitary ware. This latter provision brought in the Trenton men, who have already put their money in the right hands. They reported to the executive committee as did the potteries of Baltimore, and other eastern points.

Much gratification is expressed by the manufacturers as the new arrangement insures a new era, one that has long been sought. It will keep up the price of ware, and prevent that ruinous competition which means low wages and no profit.

SENTENCED THE GANG.

McKinnon, Cartwright and Welsh Got a Year Each.

Special to the News Review.

LISBON, Jan. 4.—The men indicted by the special grand jury were brought into court this morning, and all but one entered a plea of guilty.

Henry Heltman, of Wellsville, was given 18 months in the penitentiary for stealing less than $10 worth of whisky from a saloon in that place.

John Lacy, Harvey Kemp, Robert Lawrence, Robert Walton and Lawrence Brown decided that they were guilty of burglary, and were each presented with a year at hard labor.

Orville McKinnon, Thomas Cartwright and Albert Welsh, the Liverpool boys, plead guilty to the charge of burglary, and were each given a year in the penitentiary and compelled to pay the costs.

When arraigned to answer the charge of shooting, Charles Carragher said that he was not guilty, and was sent back to jail to await a trial. There will be a few more cases, and then the work is done.

In Judge Young's court today, William Smeltz, of Wellsville, was fined $50 and costs for resisting an officer at Salem. He was committed to the workhouse until the fine is paid.

Bud Brookes, an East Liverpool colored boy, was fined $10 and costs for stealing a pair of shoes from William Mayor at the Union pottery last fall.

Judge Billingsley will on next Tuesday hear the claimants against the Wellsville Light company. The case has been in court a long time, and all the interested parties are anxious to see it settled.

We Will Lose Good Citizens.

By reference to large advertisement on fourth page of today's issue, it will be seen that East Liverpool will lose several good citizens within the next few weeks, as A. S. Wallace, the popular dry goods merchant, is closing out business at this point and will remove, accompanied by his father and family, to Indiana, Pa., where we understand he will engage extensively in the same business. Messrs. Wallace have been doing business in East Liverpool for the past 16 years, and they have won an enviable reputation as merchants and square dealers. East Liverpool will lose and Indiana gain some first-class residents. The News Review, in company with a host of others, wish Mr. Wallace and family success and prosperity wherever they may reside.

Will Put in New Machinery.

The committee having in charge the Diamond pump will hold a meeting next Thursday evening in order to arrange for a benefit. It was recently found that the machinery at the pump must be changed, and the room below the Diamond made somewhat larger. To do this the committee must have money, and it is thought that an elaborate entertainment is the best method at hand. The popularity of the Diamond well should insure a great audience and a heavy financial return.

Senior's Anniversary.

The Senior American Mechanics will celebrate their sixth anniversary at their hall, Fifth street, on next Tuesday evening, January 8. Members of the order, their families and the Daughter of Liberty are in receipt of invitations. A royal feast will be spread, and an exceedingly enjoyable time is anticipated. A fine program has been prepared for the occasion. The organization is in first class condition, socially, numerically and financially. All members are urged to be present.

A Bald-Headed Guard.

A special from Columbus has the following of a Columbiana county man:

"Guard Temple, who was assaulted by Convict O'Day, whom he killed, was taken to his home in Columbiana county today. Temple was badly injured by the lick on the head with a piece of iron, and is now in a bad condition. The blow was on the top of the head, and pus has gathered under the scalp and is giving considerable trouble. He is certain to become bald headed, if no other result follows."

An Opinion.

The Trenton correspondent of a trade paper airs his view of a troublesome question in this manner:

"The secretary of the treasury having declared the alcohol-in-the-arts clause of the tariff bill inoperative, it will require no amending and therefore it is very doubtful if Senator Jim Smith, of New Jersey, will be able to get back the 10 per cent he promised the potters when the labor trouble was patched up."

At the Head of the Skating Class.

Among the many excellent skaters in the city who have been enjoying the ice is Mr. Harris, of the board of water works trustees. The gentleman is the acknowledged leader of skaters in this section, and although the silver has commenced to show in his hair he can give pointers to all the boys when he gets on the ice.

Those Who Are Ill.

Vance, the little son of Joseph Andrews, is very ill at the residence on Sixth street, and there are small chances for his recovery.

Mrs. Thomas Buckley, Sixth street, who has been very sick, is better.

Mrs. Bulger, the aged mother of Alvin H. Bulger, is improving after a severe illness.

The Johnson Robbers.

The men who entered the Johnson house near Lisbon have not yet been arrested, although it is known that the county authorities are looking for the gang. No word is heard as to the cause of the delay, but it was stated several days ago that the authorities were believed to know the name of every man implicated.

Called to Salineville.

Baggage-master George Smith was summoned yesterday afternoon to the bedside of his father, a well-known resident of Salineville, who is dangerously ill. Mr. Smith's family accompanied him in response to the message. Agent Hill took the baggage-master's place at the local depot this morning.

Injured a Valuable Dog.

A valuable setter, whose owner was unknown, was found on Robinson street yesterday with a deep cut several inches long in his shoulder. A good Samaritan cared for the poor animal and gave it attention.

Two New Additions.

Born to Mr. and Mrs. Martin Broska Second street, a daughter.

Born to Mr. and Mrs. Albert Smith, Lincoln avenue, a daughter.

FELL FROM A LADDER

Internal Injuries For a Strange Tinner.

THE DROP WAS TWENTY FEET

Francis Balkley May Recover, and If He Should Be So Fortunate He Will Climb No More Rotten Ladders—A Youth Broke an Arm Skating.

Francis Balkley, a tinner, who has not been long in the city, fell from a ladder yesterday, and is now wondering if he will get well.

Balkley was fixing a broken water pipe at the residence of George Thomas, Seventh street, yesterday afternoon, when the ladder broke, throwing him to the ground. The fall was in the neighborhood of 20 feet, and the man was so badly injured that he could not arise. His cries brought aid, and a physician was summoned. A hasty examination showed that he was badly hurt, and he was taken to his boarding house in the alley between Fourth and Fifth streets. There he is at present suffering greatly from the injuries which are internal. As yet the attending physician, Doctor Ogden, is unable to tell the extent of the man's hurts, but if not dangerously he is at least painfully injured.

Alfred Walker, the son of a potter bearing the same name, was skating on the river yesterday afternoon when he fell and broke one of his arms. The boy suffered intense agony for a time, but he was taken to a physician and the fracture was reduced as soon as possible. Although there have been many minor accidents on the river since the skating began, Walker is the first to sustain a serious injury.

Edward Parker, a 15-year-old boy, residing with his parents on the Calcutta road, fell on the ice near the foot of Washington street yesterday afternoon, alighting on his head. He was unconscious when his companions went to his assistance, and a sleigh was secured to take him home. At one time it was thought he was fatally injured, but he was a little better this morning, although still in a dangerous condition.

A boy residing on Third street was run down by a sled yesterday, the runner passing over his leg. As the sled was not loaded he escaped with a few bruises.

Appetite, My Boy, Appetite.

A sleighing party consisting of 34 gentlemen and ladies from East Liverpool took supper at the Book House Tuesday evening. We do not understand why they were charged more than the usual price for meals, as we have been informed that they were charged $1.50 per couple instead of the usual price—namely, $1.—East Palestine Revielle.

Perhaps it requires more than the usual amount to satisfy the hunger of the average Liverpool party.

No New Cases.

There were no new cases in police court this morning. Mayor Gilbert has not fined Charles Amos as he says it is of no use to do so, and incidentally mentions that he would send Charles to the workhouse if the city but had a contract with some institution of that sort. Freddy Bloor and E. J. Saunders are still boarding at the city jail and will continue to do so until the authorities become tired of feeding them.

Another Kiln to Be Built.

The Sebring company are arranging to construct another kiln, which, when completed, will give the plant five of the largest kilns in the city. Work will begin at once and be carried on with the greatest possible energy, and the kiln completed as soon as possible. The Sebring company have made rapid strides to the front since they began the manufacture of crockery.

A Pleasant Ride.

Eight members of the social committee of the Young Men's Christian association and Ladies' auxiliary drove to William Boland's, near Echo Dell, and spent a delightful evening. The visitors were literally given the house, and Mrs. Boland and her daughter served a sumptuous repast.

A Great Event.

The joint installation of the officers of the Grand Army, Sons of Veterans and Woman's Relief corps which takes place this evening will be the occasion of the year. A large number of recruits have recently been added to the camp of the Sons of Veterans.

—Mrs. George H. Owen, Fourth street, is visiting her sister, Mrs. W. C. Pomeroy, Allegheny.

EAST LIVERPOOL, O., FRIDAY, JAN. 4.

For President,
WILLIAM MCKINLEY,
OF Ohio.

Has any one heard of the potteries of East Liverpool being "thrown open to the markets of the world?"

WHEN the snow is gone every other farmer in the country will wonder why some move is not made for better roads.

THE street railway company seem to have understood the art of playing a one-sided game when they secured the franchise along the river road.

THE efforts to prevent the collection of the income tax will be closely watched by the interested as well as those who are not affected by the measure.

If Mr. Coxey would hold his Liverpool friends in line, he should open one of those interest bearing bond offices in this city, and employ a lecturer to explain his scheme, at least once each day.

If the Gorman compromise had never become a law, and there was still a protective duty on crockery, the potteries of this place would be working day and night instead of the owners wondering what trade will be this year.

DEMOCRACY was ever a growler without the necessary ability to accomplish any great reform. For years the old party growled because of the tariff and made many promises, yet the leaders fought among themselves when the final moment came.
They promised all sorts of things when they had a chance to change the currency, but what are they doing? It is work, and not talk, that the American public demands just now.

STATE FINANCES.

Knowing full well that they have been whipped in the tariff battle, and fearing to take up the question of a change in currency, some Democratic editors of this state have, in their search for an issue, settled upon the state treasury, and are pounding away with all the force of their senseless abuse. They formulate no plan by which any defects in the present system can be remedied, but waste vast quantities of space in heaping abuse upon such state officials as have come under their eye. While it is true that the financial condition of Ohio is not what it should be, and no one will deny that we owe too much money, what are they going to do about it? Did the Democrats ever remedy this condition when they were in power? Is there any member of the party with the ability to change the condition? Is there to be found that feeling in the ranks of Democracy which means a more wise and economical administration than Governor McKinley has given? If these questions can be truthfully answered in the affirmative, Democracy has been turning over a leaf these past few days.

PITH OF THE NEWS.

HILL WAS A GUEST.

The Senator Attends a Dinner at the White House.

HE AND CLEVELAND RECONCILED.

The President and Mr. Hill Engaged in Close Conversation Before Dinner—Their Meeting Extremely Cordial—The Senator Refuses to Discuss the Matter.

WASHINGTON, Jan. 4.—When the list of names of guests at the president's dinner to the cabinet was given out, the appearance among them of that of Senator Hill of New York was received with some incredulity. There had been no intimation that the New York senator was to be present, and when it became known about town that Mr. Hill was the guest of the president, the fact was at once the subject of the greatest speculation. There had been rumors that an understanding had been reached between the president and Mr. Hill, but the presence of the latter at the White House was the first tangible evidence that the rumors were probably authentic.

But once during this administration has Mr. Hill before been within the portals of the executive mansion. That time was just after the arrival of Senator Murphy and the two New York senators appeared at the White House together, but the best information is that they did not see the president at that time.

The president and Mr. Hill met in general assembly before the dinner began, and their meeting was to every appearance one of extreme cordiality.
They remained together for some minutes in a close conversation. Mr. Hill escorted Mrs. Hearst to the dining hall.

Senator Hill declined to discuss his presence at the White House, saying that it was a purely social visit and had no political significance, and consequently he did not feel at liberty to talk on the subject. Nevertheless, his attendance will be a mark for political gossip for some days to come. It is understood that Mr. Hill was invited to the last cabinet dinner, but declined.

TO CELEBRATE A CENTENNIAL.

Governor McKinley Invites Pennsylvania to Participate.

HARRISBURG, Jan. 4.—Governor Pattison has submitted to the legislature a letter from Governor McKinley of Ohio, calling attention to the fact that on Aug. 3, 1895, will be celebrated at Greenville, O., the Centennial of the Conquest of the Indian Natives. The treaty of peace was signed on Aug. 3, 1795, between General Anthony Wayne and the representatives of the conquered Indians at Greenville, and Ohio proposes to celebrate.

The letter encloses resolutions adopted by the Ohio legislature authorizing Governor McKinley to invite the states of Pennsylvania, Virginia and Kentucky, the states which furnished most of the soldiers in the campaign of 1794, to send representatives to participate in same celebration, and to invite these states to prepare tablets or other memorials for a memorial structure. It is probable that the legislature will take action looking to this state's being represented.

Nicaragua's Sovereignty Recognized.

WASHINGTON, Jan. 4.—Correspondence submitted by the president to the senate, concerning the Bluefields affair, shows that the English government is well pleased with the prospect of having Chief Clarence and his fortunes eliminated from the political responsibility.
There was the most upon expression of satisfaction at the English foreign office upon the reported voluntary incorporation of the Indians with the rest of Nicaragua, for it was a consummation devoutly to be wished, and they were glad to be free from the subject. Both the United States and England recognize Nicaragua's sovereignty over the Mosquito reservation.

Aid For Nebraska Sufferers.

PHILADELPHIA, Jan. 4.—Several barrels of provisions and clothing have passed through this city en route to Kansas and Nebraska, where they will be distributed among the deserving poor.
The goods were contributed by the people of Westchester, Kennett Square, Oxford, Coatesville and other Chester county towns. A fund of nearly $400, more than 1,000 pounds of clothing and several barrels of flour, together with a large quantity of canned goods, were shipped to the same point.

TALKED ON CURRENCY.

Prominent Men Present at Boston Merchants' Annual Banquet.

BOSTON, Jan. 4.—The annual banquet of the Boston Merchants' association occurred at the Hotel Vendome with over 200 guests present. At one table sat the president of the association, John H. Lane.
On his immediate right were Hon. A. P. Hepburn, president of the Third National bank of New York; Thomas C. Catchings, congressman from Mississippi, and Hon. William Dodsworth of New York. At his left sat George E. Leighton, president of the Commercial club of St. Louis; Hon.
Roger Walcott, lieutenant governor of Massachusetts, and Hon. William E.
Barrett, congressman-elect from Massachusetts.

After the items of an elaborate menu had been discussed, President Lane opened the post prandial exercises.
Turning attention to the "Banking and currency system of the United States," which was the subject of the evening, he said: "Every public spirited and patriotic citizen will look with grave suspicion upon the situation which em-barrasses us all. Every item of legislation which will meet present conditions should not for a moment be delayed."

He suggested that a new banking and currency bill should be constructed.
"It should be strictly national, every note issued bearing the stamp of the controller and having the added security of a guarantee fund," he said.
"This means no state banks. We cannot part with a national currency upon any consideration, however. President Lane then introduced Lieutenant Governor Walcott, who gave formal greeting to the assembly, and then Hon. A.
P. Hepburn, Hon. William Dodsworth and others spoke.

Death Due to Exposure.

HAZLETON, Pa., Jan. 4.—Adam Hill, aged 35 years, has been found dead in the rear of his father's house. His father is superintendent of the Eckley collieries, and on account of the num-ous atrocities committed recently it was believed that he had been foully dealt with. Coroner Buckley investigated the case, but finding no evidence of violence concluded that death was due to exposure.

Shot on a St. Louis Street.

ST. LOUIS, Jan. 4.—George Lampkin, a meat seller, has been shot down on the street and killed by J. S. Reap, another meat dealer, who fired two shots into his victim. Reap gave himself up and was placed in jail. Alleged illicit relations between Lampkin and Reap's daughter, in addition to trouble Reap had with his wife, preyed upon the unfortunate man's mind, and the tragedy resulted.

Didn't Want to Be a Bigamist.

BETHLEHEM, Pa., Jan. 4.—Guests assembled at the Moravian church to witness the marriage of Miss Mary Alice Fogel to Valentine Hoyer. An hour previous to the time fixed the prospective bride received a letter from Hoyer informing her that he had a wife and children in Northampton, Mass., and that he had fled. The girl's father, who is wealthy, has sent detectives to New York after Hoyer.

A Baby Frozen to Death.

CLARKSBURG, W. Va., Jan. 4.—It has been discovered that the family of Henry Watson, in this city, has been in destitute circumstances for several weeks, and that even during the terrible weather of the past few days their home has been practically without fuel. These facts were ascertained by the father calling upon a neighbor to help prepare his baby for burial, the infant having been frozen.

Mr. Gladstone Injured.

LONDON, Jan. 4.—It has been learned that Mr. Gladstone had a serious accident last week. He stumbled over an open drawer, cut his forehead, broke his spectacles and was unable to see for several hours. Mr. and Mrs. Gladstone on Monday will leave England for Cannes, where they will be the guests of Lord Rendel.

Severe Earthquake Shocks.

ROME, Jan. 4.—Severe earthquake shocks have been felt at Milazzo. Two earthquake shocks were also felt in the Province of Reggio di Calabria. The population is in a state of terror, anticipating a repetition of the disasters which have so recently occurred in that part of Italy.

Tramp Found Hanging to a Limb.

CARLEISLE, Pa., Jan. 4.—A aged tramp has been found hanging in a wood near this city. He had committed suicide by hanging himself to the limb of a tree. His body was interred in the almshouse graveyard.

SILVER OUR DANGER.

Carnegie Says It Settles All Kinds of Business.

A BRIGHT OUTLOOK FOR 1895.

If the Standard of Value Was Placed on the Highest Basis Capital at Home and Abroad Alarmed—Edward Atkinson Agrees With Him.

CLEVELAND, Jan. 4.—The Iron Trade Review today publishes a letter from Andrew Carnegie, in which he says:

"It seems to me that 1895 is going to be a better year for the iron and steel trade than its predecessor, now slowly dying; how it could be worse, it is difficult to conjecture. But the sword of Damocles hangs over every phase of business in the United States. That sword is silver. Until the country plants itself firmly and forever upon the platform of in one of the highest standard of value, no forecast is worth much.
We never can have permanent and genuine prosperity without first settling the standard of value. At present capital, not only at home, but throughout the world, is alarmed.

"No prudent investor abroad will place his capital here and numbers are quietly withdrawing it. This was to be expected and is only natural. When one act of congress, or the failure to pass an act, may reduce the value of every dollar invested by one-half it is in vain we seek prosperity.

"My friend, Edward Atkinson has just called and I have read this to him.
He concurs fully and says: 'All the material conditions of this country are conducive to a period of great prosperity; never greater. Nothing stands in the way but the threat of the degradation of the standard of value.'"

M'BRYDE SCORES HAYES.

Miners Have a Scheme to Reorganize the
K. of L.

COLUMBUS, Jan. 4.—Patrick McBryde, secretary of the United Mine Workers, has issued a manifesto scoring General Secretary Hayes of the Knights of Labor for the alleged part taken by him in excluding the miners from the general assembly of the Knights of Labor at New Orleans.

He refers to the fact that a committee has been appointed by the delegates excluded from the general assembly and that they resolved to advise that no more tax be sent to headquarters, and appointed a committee to take such steps as will reorganize the order on original lines. As to the miners, no man is asked to leave the K. of L., but to hold fast to their assemblies and be ready to take part in the reorganization.

Determined to Stop Crime.

SAN FRANCISCO, Jan. 4.—The people of Sacramento have determined to rid themselves of the horde of criminals and tramps who have been holding a carnival of crime in the city for weeks past.
Three brutal murders, the object of which was robbery, numerous murderous assaults to rob and innumerable burglaries have served to arouse the people to their danger.

Will Meet Foster at Kobe.

LONDON, Jan. 4.—A dispatch to The Times from Tientsin says that the Chinese envoys, to negotiate a peace with Japan, will proceed to Japan ten days hence. They will meet at Kobe Mr. John W. Foster, ex-American secretary of state, who has been appointed to act with them in an advisory capacity.

Made a Count.

CHICAGO, Jan. 4.—Word has been received from Rome that the pope has conferred the title of count upon John A.
Creighton of Omaha, in recognition of the latter's benefactions to education and charity. Only two other Americans bear the dignity—W. J. Onahan of Chicago, and a gentleman living in Brooklyn.

Damaged by Fire.

SPRINGFIELD, O., Jan. 4.—The residence of P. P. Mast, millionaire manufacturer, has been damaged by fire.
The interior was entirely destroyed.
Loss about $60,000, insured for $50,000 on building and $10,000 on contents.
The fire is supposed to be of incendiary origin.

Thousands of Measles Cases.

INDIANAPOLIS, Jan. 4.—At the office of the board of health it is reported there are nearly 4,000 cases of measles in Indianapolis. The physicians have been reporting 40 and 50 cases a day for the last week, and the assertion is made that only one case in six is reported to the health department.

Judgment Against a Magnate.

INDIANAPOLIS, Jan. 4.—A judgment of $108,918.79 has been awarded against David J. Mackey, the railroad magnate in a suit in the federal court. The complainant was W. N. Cromwell of New York and the amount recovered was due as borrowed money to a Gotham brokerage firm which Cromwell represented.

An Order For the Kaiser.

YOKOHAMA, Jan. 4.—It is stated that the Mikado has conferred upon Emperor William the grand order of the Imperial Chrysanthemum in recognition of the services rendered by German officers to the Japanese officers who have been under their instruction in military and naval science.

Wanted in Cincinnati.

NEWARK, N. J., Jan. 4.—The police have learned that Theodore Finner, who was arrested in this city on Saturday night for complicity in a small robbery, is a well known crook and is wanted in Cincinnati for sandbagging and robbing a man of $1,400.

Burrows Nominated For Senator.

LANSING, Mich., Jan. 4.—Congressman Burrows has been nominated for United States Senator on the second ballot by the Republican caucus.

Found Frozen to Death.

PARKERSBURG, W. Va., Jan. 4.—John Richards, aged 70, has been frozen to death near his home in this county.

THE RICKS INVESTIGATION.

Party Lines Likely to Be Drawn Over It In Congress.

WASHINGTON, Jan. 4.—There is a probability that the full committee on judiciary of the house will consider the case of Judge Ricks of Cleveland, O., and make a report to the house without the intervention of the sub-committee which investigated the charge. Representative Bailey of Texas, the chairman of the sub-committee, has appeared in the house for the first time after a serious illness.

The preparation of a report had been delegated to Mr. Bailey, but he has not been able to give the matter the attention which he thinks it should receive, nor has he sufficiently recovered to do so at once. Therefore Mr. Bailey says he will lay the matter before the judiciary committee, and will, without making any recommendations on the merits of the case, ask that the full committee consider the evidence which was gathered in Cleveland and decide what action to take. All testimony offered before the sub-committee was taken in shorthand, so that the full committee would have all the necessary facts before it.

What report the full committee will conclude to make is very uncertain. According to members of the committee the question is likely to be decided somewhat on party lines, with the Republican members as supporters of Judge Ricks and the western and southern Democrats favoring censure or impeachment. There is little probability that the matter will be carried to a conclusion by this congress.

ASSAULTED THE EDITOR.

Breckinridge's Law Partner Closes Him and Tears His Whiskers.

LEXINGTON, Ky., Jan. 4.—John T.
Shelby, law partner of Colonel Breckinridge, assaulted Editor Charles C.
Moore of The Blue Grass Blade, with a cane, breaking it over his head. He then tore out a bunch of Moore's whiskers. George S. Shanklin, another lawyer and Breckinridge supporter, accompanied Shelby and looked on with apparent pleasure while Shelby assaulted the editor.

Moore published in his paper an open letter to Madeline Pollard requesting her to go on the lecture platform with him now that Colonel Breckinridge is lecturing. He said she had more sense than Breckinridge and all his lawyers, mentioning Shelby among the rest, and that she did not like all of them had done.

A Move to Beat Elkins.

WHEELING, Jan. 4.—Nelson Whitaker, the millionaire iron manufacturer, has issued a public letter announcing his candidate for the United States senate.
Whitaker's friends claim that he is certain of not less than 15 votes. The announcement of Whitaker's candidacy simultaneous with the formal announcement of Floyd and Hutchinson indicates a well planned and widespread movement to defeat Elkins. The friends of Elkins here claim that they have enough votes pledged to defeat Whitaker.

Mowbray's Case Postponed.

PHILADELPHIA, Jan. 4.—Charles W.
Mowbray, the alleged English anarchist, was arraigned before Judge Gordon in quarter sessions court and pleaded not guilty to two bills of indictment charging him with making seditious speeches. Mowbray's counsel asked for a postponement of the case on the ground that he had not had sufficient notice to prepare for the defense, and the case went over without a day being fixed.

Kidnaped His Child.

WABASH, Ind., Jan. 4.—Phillip Scott of El Reno, I. T., came to Wabash and stole his 4-year-old daughter from his di-vored wife. Scott married his wife in Kansas five years ago and they soon after moved to El Reno. There he is alleged to have maltreated her, and she procured a divorce and the custody of the child and was brought to Wabash by her relatives.

A Jury Out For Eight Days.

PERRY, O. T., Jan. 4.—The jury in the case of Joe Morris and his son-in-law, Fred Schwartz, who have been on trial for the murder of W. W. Klaus, for 20 days, have been locked up in their room for eight days. It is said that it stands eight for conviction and four for acquittal. Judge Bierer sent the jury back to their room till they could agree.

Accused of Being Lynchers.

O'NEILL, Neb., Jan. 4.—Milt Roy and Jim Pinkerton have been arrested, charged with being members of the mob which is supposed to have lynched Barrett Scott. The leader is under surveillance. The prisoners deny their guilt.
Scott's fate is still a mystery.

A Postoffice Robbed.

DECATUR, Ala., Jan. 4.—The postoffice in this city has been robbed of postage stamps, registered letters and packages and money belonging to the government.
The loss is about $1,000. Burglars blew open the safe and rifled it of its contents.

Granted a Reprieve.

PHILADELPHIA, Jan. 4.—The supreme court of the United States at Washington granted a reprieve until March 4 to Theodore Lambert, who was to have been hung at Camden, N. J.

CLEVELAND FAVORS IT

He Discusses Carlisle's Bill Without Reserve.

NOT DETERMINED ON A MESSAGE.

Several House Leaders Make a Call at the White House—The President Thinks the Carlisle Bill a Step in the Right Direction.

WASHINGTON, Jan. 4.—President Cleveland has not yet determined to send a special message to congress on the currency question. This was definitely ascertained by leaders of the house, who had heard that a special message was contemplated. It was learned that Secretary Carlisle had mentioned the matter to the president and it had been discussed in a general way. There had been no conclusion reached, however, and up to the present time the president had not framed such a message, or in fact determined to send one. The president has thrown off his usual reserve in discussing the pending currency bill with members of congress. Chairman Springer of the currency committee, Representative Culbertson and several other house leaders have called at the White House of late and have talked at length with the president on the currency question. In these talks Mr. Cleveland has urged the great need of passing some form of currency legislation. He has pointed out that the Carlisle bill was not a reform of every existing evil of the financial system, any more than the tariff bill was a complete realization of the hopes of tariff reform.

Yet in the judgment of the president the Carlisle bill was a step in the right direction, and with that accomplished there was hope of progressing until the financial system was perfected at every point. Mr. Cleveland expressed his approval of the Carlisle bill as a whole and in detail. He did not point out to his callers anything that he regarded as a flaw in it. He expressed the hope that it would receive favorable and speedy action.

LIKELY TO OPPOSE IT.

Republicans Not Favorable to the Plan to Correct Tariff Errors.

WASHINGTON, Jan. 4.—Some of the Republican senators to whom the Democratic leaders have communicated their desire to be allowed to amend the urgent deficiency bill with legislation looking to the correction of errors in the tariff law do not appear to be favorably impressed with the idea, and it now seems that the project will encounter considerable antagonism on the Republican side. In case the opposition is not mollified, or if it appears too persistent, the present Democratic programme is not to offer the amendments.

It is perfectly well understood by them that the matter would not be germane to the deficiency bill, being general legislation, and that it would be ruled out upon a point of order under clause 3, rule 16. They are devoting themselves assiduously, however, to missionary work among the Republican senators. The urgent deficiency bill will be held in the appropriations committee until it is determined whether the tariff amendments shall be offered, and if they are offered, until they shall be passed upon by the finance committee.

THE SENATE SESSION.

Senator Allen Provokes Debate Concerning the Senate Restaurant.

WASHINGTON, Jan. 4.—The resolution heretofore introduced by Mr. Allen, Populist of Nebraska, relating to the occupation of rooms in the basement of the senate wing of the capitol for restaurant purposes gave rise to an interesting debate in the senate. Mr. Allen severely criticised the practice of furnishing to the proprietors of the restaurant free of cost his furniture, ice, etc., and asserted it was a violation of the statutes and constituted larceny of the public funds. Messrs. Hale, Republican of Maine, and Manderson, Republican of Nebraska, replied to the observations of Mr. Allen and defended the existing practice. No action was taken on the resolution.

The remainder of the session was taken up by Mr. Morgan, Democrat of Alabama, in a speech on the Nicaraguan canal bill, in which he replied in detail to the arguments advanced by Mr. Turpie, Democrat of Indiana, in opposition to the bill.

Sending Out Income Tax Blanks.

WASHINGTON, Jan. 4.—Commissioner Miller of the internal revenue bureau today began sending out taxpayers' return blanks for assessment of the internal revenue income tax under the act of Aug. 28, 1894. These blanks will be sent to the collectors of internal revenue throughout the country and by them will be distributed to the taxpayers. There are 63 collectors, and it is the intention to send out as rapidly as printed about 300,000 copies, although it is not expected that this number will be actually required in making returns.

The Session of the House.

WASHINGTON, Jan. 4.—The proceedings in the house lacked marked incidents of any kind. The debate on the currency bill continued all day, but was generally spiritless and the attendance, which was large at the beginning, dwindled to almost nothing. The speakers were Messrs. Black of Georgia, McCrary and Buckner of Kentucky, in favor of the bill, and Messrs. Hanger of Wisconsin, and Adams of Pennsylvania, in opposition to it. No other business was transacted.

A Cashier Elected.

PARKERSBURG, W. Va., Jan. 4.—Frank E. Waterman has been elected cashier of Wood County National bank of this city. For years he was private secretary to Senator Camden and later connected with the First National bank.

LOCAL BREVITIES

The daughter of Daniel Pauly, Sunnyside, is ill with tonsillitis.

More sledding parties left the city for the country last night, and a host will go tonight.

School begins Monday, and already the rooms are being prepared for invasion by the youngsters and older students.

Workmen have commenced excavating for the new kiln to be built at the plant of the D. E. McNicol Pottery company.

A little child of James Grafton was taken suddenly ill at the opera house last evening, and it was feared for a time that it would die.

John Taylor, of Pittsburg, who secured a position as bookkeeper at the Thomas pottery, has taken up his residence on Cadmus street.

James Hawkins, who has been in jail several days with a charge of being drunk against his name, was fined $6.00, and having no money was turned out.

C. L. Clarke, who has been working as stone cutter on the new school house, will go to New Orleans on the towboat Sam Brown when she is able to get away.

Traffic on the railroad is commencing to pick up after the lull following holiday week. A great deal of freight is being moved, but not much goes from this city.

A little daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Bennett, of California Hollow, ate something injurious the other day, and has since been so ill that she could not be moved.

The case of Squire J. N. Rose versus J. H. Graham for $15.08 will come up for trial before Squire Manley tomorrow morning at 9 o'clock. The suit involves a deal in horses.

Patrick McDermott, night watchman at the D. E. McNicol Pottery company, is very ill, and it was feared last night that he could not live. He is, however, somewhat improved today.

Eli Swanzen, a Swedish tailor, was walking along Jackson street the other evening when he stumbled over a pile of bricks on the pavement. His legs were so badly injured by the fall that he was confined to his room for several days.

A small boy, whose name could not be learned, came near seeing the last of life on the Washington street hill yesterday afternoon. He rode a short distance on the step of a street car, and when he got off fell in front of a heavy team coming from the opposite direction. After some lively scrambling in the snow he escaped injury.

The announcement in the News Review last evening that the street railway company would ask the city to provide a new right of way when the tracks are moved, to permit the extension of the Laughlin pottery, caused many an expression implying that the city had made the deal, and that the city would have to live up to what it had done, it mattered not how much money the new move would require.

A stranger had an experience in a hotel last night which made him change his quarters in a hurry. After he had been taken to his room by the bell boy he asked for a pitcher of ice water, to which the youth replied: "Why didn't you bring it up yourself when you came." The impudence of the boy made the guest so angry that after giving him a bit of advice he walked out of the hotel, and sought another stopping place.

A post mortem examination of the body of Eugene Luther was held yesterday evening by Doctors Shay, Bailey, Norris and Marshall, the object being to establish the cause of death, deceased having met with an accident not long ago. The examination showed that the direct cause of death was a number of tumors in different parts of the body. The post mortem was eminently satisfactory to the friends of the unfortunate man.

The conversational social at the First Presbyterian church last evening made one of the most enjoyable entertainments ever heard in the city. After listening to an excellent program each person present was presented with a card filled with topics, and was asked to converse with some one for five minutes on each subject. The last topic was the word "refreshment," and after its discussion had been concluded, dainty refreshments were served by the ladies.

Affairs at the light plant have taken on a more encouraging look since the machinery was placed in position and the company enabled to give customers a good service. Meters are being put in at many places in town, and the beneficial effects are already being felt in a saving of power to the company and expense to the consumer. Manager Swaney, of the telephone company, will soon turn over his position at the light plant, as Superintendent McKeehan is expected home from Mexico in a week or two.

Pull off with starch and glass serene.
The linen collar starts the morn.
Pull off at moonlight it is seen.
All writhed, wrinkled and forlorn.
That's what you must expect of such a collar; it's the linen of it. The stand-up collar won't stand up, and the turn-down collars will wilt down. The easy, cheap, and pleasant way out of this is to wear "CELLULOID" COLLARS AND CUFFS. These goods are made by covering linen collars or cuffs on both sides with "CELLULOID," thus making them strong and durable, and waterproof, not affected by heat or moisture. There are no other waterproof goods made this way, consequently none that can wear so well. When soiled simply wipe them off with a wet cloth. Every piece of the genuine is stamped like this:
TRADE MARK.
Insist upon goods so marked if you expect full satisfaction, and if your dealer does not keep them, send direct to us enclosing amount and we will mail sample. State size and whether a stand-up or turned-down collar is wanted. Collars 25c. each. Cuffs 50c. pair.

STOLE THE MONEY HIMSELF.

The Assistant Cashier in the Cincinnati Postoffice Confesses.

CINCINNATI, Jan. 4.—Frank H. Sparks, the assistant cashier of the postoffice, has been arrested and has confessed that he got away with the money himself that was stolen from the postoffice. He was short $286.30, and was to settle as soon as Cashier Tucker returned from lunch, when he knew he would be caught. While Tucker was lunching Sparks took $583.68 from the drawer, put the $592 in bills between the leaves of a magazine and $21.28 in coin in an envelope, hiding both. After his confession he told where the money was and $588.68 was recovered. Sparks is married and belongs to a good family. His friends will make up the shortage of $286, but Inspector Salmon says that will not save him from prosecution. Assistant Cashier Sparks was found lying on the floor in an unconscious condition, by Janitor John Wiehe. No noise had previously been heard about the place, but when Wiehe gave the alarm, an enormous crowd soon surrounded the building. When Postmaster Zumstein, Inspector Salmon and Cashier Tucker arrived in the cashier's office, Sparks did not appear to be badly hurt, although he had a big bump on his forehead. There was no doubt whatever about the money drawer being short $583.68. Cashier Tucker and the others waited until Sparks took his lunch first and then they went out for lunch. Sparks was alone when, he said, two men entered the office and asked for small change for a $5 bill.

While he was unlocking the money drawer one of them rushed through the small screen door, which happened to be open, and soon both of them were on to him. He says he dealt one of them a hard blow, but was himself struck by a pair of iron knuckles and knew nothing that transpired from that time until he was aroused by Janitor Wiehe. The watchman, who is constantly patrolling the corridor, says that he saw no such men as Sparks described either enter or leave the cashier's office. While all the police, detectives, deputies and inspectors had been working on a theory of a robbery, yet they had been shadowing every movement of Sparks' since he left the office.

The detectives say that Sparks' injured forehead is not the result of iron knuckles or a slingshot being used on him, but of a bump inflicted by contact with the vault or something equally hard. On a center-table near the money drawer were over $5,000 in envelopes for the letter carriers, it being their payday.

Negotiations Proceeding Quietly.

WASHINGTON, Jan. 4.—Speaking of the reported claim of Mexico against Guatemala for $1,868,000 for "invasion damages," Minister Arriaga of Guatemala said that he had no information on the subject. He believed the negotiations for the settlement of the bound-ary dispute were proceeding quietly.
